

Corporate Membership

Provide us with the correct contact person and we will work on behalf of you and your fellow colleagues to explore a corporate fitness program offering great monthly savings.

According to Singapore National Employers' Federations (SNEF), every 3 in 5 companies have programs in place that promote employee health.

American Journal of Health Promotion finds that physically active employees are less expensive to keep than inactive workers each year.

The results of employee wellness and fitness programs commonly show a 100% to 300% return on investment in just five years.

Caring for employees' wellbeing reward employer with greater loyalty, reduced employee turnover and higher job-satisfaction

EnergyOne Corporate Membership is a great way to provide your employees an outlet to relieve their day-to-day stress levels in today's fast-paced world.

Let us provides you with the necessary assistance in starting and sustaining your workplace health programmes.
